UDC Guidance for Student Residency Classification for Tuition Purposes Effective August 1, 2019

1. Residency Definition

For tuition purposes, applicants are classified as District, Metro Area, or Out-of-State students, and pay different tuition rates accordingly. These classifications are defined as follows:

- A. District: Bona fide (authenticated via documented proof) residents of the District of Columbia.
- B. Metro Area: Bona fide residents of one of the following counties: Montgomery County, Prince George's County, Arlington County, Alexandria County, or Fairfax County. List of qualified zip codes is attached.
- C. Out-of-State: Residents of any state, territory, or county other than those defined by the District and Metro Area.

2. Burden of Proof

Applicants who are seeking to be classified as District residents or Metro Area residents must provide documentation proving that he or she satisfies the requirements and standards set forth in the policy. Assignment of District or Metro Area status will be made by UDC officials in the enrollment management unit based upon the facts presented.

3. District or Metro Area Residency Status Qualification

To qualify for District or Metro Area status, applicants must demonstrate that for at least ninety (90) consecutive days immediately prior to registration for the semester/ term for which the student seeks in-state or Metro Area tuition status, the applicant was and/or currently is:

- A. Domiciled in the District or Metro Area, and either paid District of Columbia or Metro Area income taxes; OR
- B. Claimed as a dependent on District of Columbia or Metro Area resident tax returns filed by a parent or spouse who is domiciled in the District or Metro Area; OR
- C. Enrolled at a District Public (or District Public Charter) School or Metro Area public high school; or is entering the University of the District of Columbia in the fall or spring semester immediately following his or her high school graduation, and has an official high school transcript with his or her current District or Metro Area address noted on the transcript.

Living in University-managed housing does not qualify a student for District or Metro residency status.

4. Proof of Qualification

In order to prove that an applicant is qualified to be classified as a District or Metro Area resident, at least two forms of documentation are required.

Students are required to submit:

- A CERTIFIED copy of the state or DC tax return for the year in which they enroll at the University of the District of Columbia. If the applicant is claimed as a dependent on the tax form by his or her parent(s), legal guardian, or spouse, a certified copy of the state tax return must be submitted.

Federal Income Tax returns and W-2 Statements will not be accepted.

5. Special Populations Proof of Residency

District Government Employees

- A. This policy applies ONLY to students who are current employees of the District of Columbia Government, and who are actively engaged in agency-sponsored education and training and whose enrollment at UDC will enhance their education and training. Such employees who provide the proof noted below qualify for District residency status.

Students who meet this qualification must provide two forms of proof.

Please submit an employment verification letter, and a driver's license or state-issued ID.

- B. Asylees, Refugees, and Permanent Residents are eligible for District or Metro Area residency rates if valid, unexpired, immigration and proof of residency documents are provided.

Please note your eligibility to qualify for reduced tuition starts at least ninety (90) days from the issue date of your green card, with valid proof.

- C. Military (Active Duty, Selective Reserve, or National Guard members and their dependents): Compliance as explicitly required by Section 702 includes individuals covered by 38 U.S.C. 3679(c). The following individuals shall be eligible to pay the District of Columbia in-state residency rate for tuition purposes, and the requirement for living in-state for 12 months is waived.

- A veteran using educational assistance under either chapter 30 (Montgomery G.I. Bill – Active Duty Program) or chapter 33 (Post-9/11 G.I. Bill), of title 38, United States Code, who lives in the District of Columbia (regardless of his or her formal State of residence), and enrolls in the University of the District of Columbia within three years of discharge or release from a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.
- Anyone using transferred Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits (38 U.S.C. § 3319) who lives in the District of Columbia (regardless of his or her formal state of residence) and enrolls at the University of the District of Columbia within three years of the transferor's discharge or release from a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.
- Anyone described above while he or she remains continuously enrolled (other than during regularly scheduled breaks between courses, semesters, or terms) at the University of the District of Columbia. The person so described must have enrolled at the University of the District of Columbia prior to the expiration of the three year period following discharge or release as described above, and must be using educational benefits under either chapter 30 or chapter 33, of title 38, United States Code.

- Anyone using benefits under the Marine Gunnery Sergeant John David Fry Scholarship (38 U.S.C. § 3311(b)(9)) who lives in the District of Columbia (regardless of his or her formal state of residence).
- Anyone using transferred Post-9/11 G.I. Bill benefits (38 U.S.C. § 3319) who lives in the District of Columbia (regardless of his or her formal state of residence) and the transferor is a member of the uniformed service who is serving on active duty.
- The policy shall be read to be amended as necessary to be compliant with the requirements of 38 U.S.C. 3679(c) as amended.

For additional information, please contact Ms. Sequoyah D. Adebayo in the Office of Military and Veteran Student Services located at the Van Ness Campus – Student Center, Heritage Hall, B-31, (202) 274-6221, or visit the website at www.udc.edu/military.

6. Non-immigrant Visa Holders

Non-immigrant VISA holders are ineligible for District or Metro Area residency, and are automatically classified as Out-of-State.

- Persons with student (F) Visas
- Persons with diplomatic (A) Visas
- Foreign organization employees with (G) Visas
- Persons having other non-immigrant Visas

7. Residency Submission and Evaluation Procedures

The following procedures govern the classification of residency status:

- A. ALL applicants and students who wish to establish or be reclassified to District or Metro Area status must submit the documentation identified above to the Office of Undergraduate Recruitment and Admissions within at least 14 days prior to the last date of class registration. Applicants and students can either submit the appropriate documentation in person to the Office of Undergraduate Recruitment and Admissions, 4200 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20008, or send electronic/scanned copies of documents to the Office at residency@udc.edu.
- B. All requests from continuing students to change their residency status that are received after the first day of class will be processed and granted for the following semester. The request must be made in writing to the Office of Enrollment Services. The University will not consider retroactive residency requests.
- C. A decision will be made and communicated to students within 7 business days after receipt of all required documentation via the primary email address provided by the student.
- D. The University reserves the right to determine and/or change a student's residency classification at any time.

The University reserves the right to audit the residency of returning students at any time. Students are responsible for notifying the Office of the Registrar about any status change that would alter their residency status. If District or Metro Area status is gained or maintained by means of false, outdated, or misleading information, the University will, at its discretion, revoke District or Metro Area status, and take disciplinary action which may include suspension or expulsion. UDC reserves the right to retroactively assess all out-of-state charges for each semester or term affected.
