NOTICE OF FINAL RULEMAKING

The Board of Trustees of the University of the District of Columbia pursuant to the authority set forth under the District of Columbia Public Postsecondary Education Reorganization Act Amendments (Act) effective January 2, 1976 (D.C. Law 1-36; D.C. Official Code §§ 38-1202.01(a); 38-1202.06)(3),(13) (2001 & 2011 Supp.) hereby amends chapter 11 (General Personnel Policies) of subtitle B (University of the District of Columbia) of title 8 (Higher Education) of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (DCMR) as follows, effective upon publication of this Notice in the D.C. Register.

The purpose of the proposed rule is to amend the University's Probationary Period to clarify that the provisions do not apply to the faculty, employees with temporary or time-limited appointments, or University Administration; and to clarify the rules governing probationary periods.

The substance of the proposed rule enacted herein was published on October 20, 2017 at 64 DCR 010560 for a thirty-day public comment period in accordance with D.C. Official Code § 2-505(a). No public comment was received during the public comment period. The rule was adopted by the Board as final on November 28, 2017, and will become effective upon publication of this notice in the D.C. Register.

Chapter 11, GENERAL PERSONNEL POLICIES, of subtitle B, UNIVERSITY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, of title 8, HIGHER EDUCATION, is amended as follows:

Section 1110, PROBATIONARY PERIOD, is amended as follows:

1110 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

1110.1 The purpose of this chapter is to set forth rules that apply to the University's career, educational and legal service employees who are required to serve a one (1) year probationary period upon appointment to any position within the University.

1110.2 The provisions of this chapter apply to all University employees except as follows:
(a) Faculty;
(b) Employees with a temporary or time-limited appointment; and
(c) The University Administration (President's Cabinet)

- 1110.3 Upon request by the appropriate University Administrator, the Vice President of Human Resources, or a designee, may waive the probationary period for any person who has previously completed a probationary period in the field or specialty for which that person is being hired at the University. The waiver must be in writing and signed by the Vice President of Human Resources.
- 1110.4 The probationary period will be used to evaluate the performance of the employee and determine whether the employee is suited for successful job performance. The supervisor will provide appropriate instruction for the employee to function satisfactorily.
- 1110.5 An employee serving a probationary period shall not be subject to the provisions of the University's performance management system. However, a performance plan shall be provided to the probationary employee and their performance shall be evaluated against the standards set forth in that plan.
- 1110.6 At least one progress discussion should occur for probationary employees. The outcome of any such progress discussion will not preclude termination of the probationary employee's appointment during the probationary period. Likewise, an acceptable performance rating during the probationary period in and of itself does not ensure automatic passing of the probationary period or automatic movement to a regular appointment.
- 1110.7 The University shall terminate a probationary employee if, at any point during the probationary period, the employee's work performance or conduct fails to demonstrate suitability for continued employment.
- 1110.8 Neither a progress discussion nor an annual performance evaluation is grievable or appealable by a probationary employee.
- 1110.9 If an employee serves under a temporary or part-time appointment in the same position for twelve (12) consecutive months or longer, and is subsequently assigned regular full-time status in that position, he or she should be deemed to have fulfilled the requirement to serve a probationary period.
