

Our Vision

Lead in the delivery of contemporary and interdisciplinary liberal arts programming;

Develop model local and global diversity curricula that bridge the University and community;

Support the educational, service, civic, research, and occupational needs of our constituent communities.