

THEME: TRANSFORM YOUR PRACTICE

ETHICAL SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE:

with LGBT and gender non-conforming people

PRESENTER: TRAINING # 2

BRANDY NICOLE BROOKS-HARRIS
PhD, LICSW, LCSW.

DESCRIPTION: This 3 hour session will introduce participants to foundational knowledge, values, skills, and ethics related to work with LGBT and gender non-conforming people. Together, we will discuss our ethical role in supporting LGBT and gender non-conforming people with specific focus on the NASW's code of ethics preamble which suggests social workers are sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and strive to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice.

3 CEU'S | COST: $35

Contact: Dr. Janet Burton
202-274-5719 | jbarton@udc.edu
RSVP: <https://www.udc.edu/transform-your-practice/>

APRIL 5, 2019
9AM TO 12PM

Location:

UDC STUDENT CENTER BALLROOM A

4200 Connecticut Ave., NW
Washington DC 20008

UNIVERSITY OF THE
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM