Graduate Tuition Scholarship: $20,000.00

The University of the District of Columbia is accepting applications for the Graduate Tuition Scholarship for new applicants to the Professional Science Master’s (PSM) Degree tracks. PSM is an innovative, terminal degree that prepares graduates for science careers in business, government, or nonprofit organizations. Our PSM programs are carefully designed to prepare students with advanced and marketable skills in the competitive, professional world in Urban Agriculture, Urban Sustainability, or Water Resources Management. By engaging in state-of-the-art field and laboratory trainings, and a required internship at potential employer sites, each PSM track trains learners to develop in-demand hard and soft skills, including analytics, critical thinking, effective communication, problem-solving, quantitative and qualitative research skills, project design and implementation, entrepreneurship, and sustainable leadership. If you are considering a graduate degree with these essential, marketable skills at an affordable university, our PSM program is an ideal choice. You should apply for this tuition scholarship if you have a strong academic background and an interest in any of the three PSM tracks.
