DISCLAIMER

Universities of the District of Columbia scholarships are made possible by contributions from individual donor(s), organizations, and corporations. If selected, I will respond affirmatively to University or University Foundation requests to send letters of gratitude, meet with scholarship donor(s), attend events sponsored in recognition of donors, and participate in organizational meetings. I understand further that the University or University Foundation may wish to make a public announcement of scholarship winners and provide appropriate information about scholarship recipients to benefactors. I hereby authorize the University or University Foundation to release information pertaining to the scholarship, with the exception of personal salary data and the application for financial aid.
